What Is Going On Tonight.

Natchaug Lodge, No. 22, K. of P.
meets in I. O. O. F. Hall.

Members of the Knights of Columbus to the number of 350, representing many cities of this state, attended the annual convention of the third degree upon a class of 40 candidates for San Jose council, No. 11, Sunday afternoon at the town hall. The Knights met at the hall at 5 o'clock to witness the working of the degree by the degree team of Carville council of Putnam, with District Deputy Edward Mullen, assisted by District Deputy John P. Hannon of White Cross council, No. 15, of Norwich.

Immediately after the exemplification of the degree the Knights adjourned to the Knights of Columbus hall in Loomer Opera house block, where a luncheon was served, and there was music by the Knights of Columbus orchestra. The committee in charge of the arrangements consisted of the following Knights: George Timmins, George Bedford, Francis Moriarty and George Donnelly.

Bowlers representing the local plant of the American Threda company carried off all the honors Saturday night when they defeated the local team of the Holyoke mills two out of three in every series. The local bowlers left this city Saturday afternoon about 12:30 by automobile for the Massachusetts city and the automobiles taking the trip arrived there before the afternoon had passed into the big hours. Upon their arrival at Holyoke they were met by the reception committee from that plant, and the bowlers through the entire system about 5 o'clock the bowlers and their followers went to the bowling alleys, where six alleys had been reserved for them. The championship was set up and the bowlers were divided into two teams as follows: Men's team, girls' team, overseas' team. Although most of the bowlers from this city were used to bowling duckpins, they soon had the candle falling right and left, and scores were frequent. A few strikes were made and cheering cheered as the bowler added to his score. Three games were rolled in all and Willimantic bowlers took the long end, winning two and losing but one.

Following the bowling matches, the Holyoke people proved themselves to be good losers, and the supper they served to the local visitors could not have been better. Dancing and music filled up the rest of an eventful day, and the members in the 14 automobiles started for home at 10 o'clock. The first carload of visitors arrived here at 2 o'clock Sunday morning. Some of the local people stayed over Sunday night and made the return trip Sunday evening. Police circles in this city were left untroubled over the week end, when 12 offenders were arrested within a few hours.

John Barry of Norwich appeared at the police court Saturday morning to answer to charges of operating a motor vehicle without a license. Barry and a companion stopped in this city about 1 o'clock Saturday morning to get something to eat at a restaurant and left their car standing at the curb. Officer Frank McLean questioned them about having a license and all Barry could produce was a license for the machine. He did not have a driver's license. In explaining his case Barry stated that he had just procured the machine in Hartford and was driving it home. He intended to see Inspector Hugh Young of Danbury Tuesday. He also claimed to have operated an automobile for 11 months while in the army. The court decided to hold the case, which was done, and Barry paid the costs, amounting to $1.15.

LACE AND EMBROIDERY WEEK

APRIL 26th to MAY 1st

So important a role is played by Laces and Embroideries that Lace and Embroidery Week has become a Nation-Wide Event.

LACE THE ARISTOCRAT

Lace is the aristocrat among fabrics as the diamond is among jewels. It lends distinction wherever it appears. Rightly used it softens features and rounds out hollows. It brings out flesh tints in the complexion, lights up hair and eyes, and actually has an effect on the spirit for there is real sentiment in lace—women love to wear it, and it is always a treasured possession. Step in during the week and let us show you how many different ways lace can be used with satisfaction.

Study Puts Strain On Your Children

Need Building Up In Spring—The Safe Tonic Is Father John's Medicine

After the long strain of the school year, many children become pale, thin and tired. The strain of the winter's study is too great for the growing child in many cases. At such a time Father John's Medicine is of particular value and thousands of mothers give it to their children every spring and find that it gives the children the tonic food that they need. To keep all the family well and strong, Father John's Medicine is of proven value. It has been successfully used for more than 80 years.

COLCHESTER

By the will of the late Charles N. Talbot, who died in New York, the late Bacon Academy, Colchester, was left $5,000. Mr. Talbot was a trustee of the academy.

Louis E. Baldwin of Middletown was in town Friday.

Mrs. Charles N. Taylor was a Willimantic caller Friday.

Miss Mary Wade has been the guest of Hartford friends.

A. A. Baker and Mrs. Edward T. Dunbar, were recent guests of relatives in Hartford.

The railroad company is putting in a spur track to the land recently purchased by Blakeslee & Sons, the contractors for the new state road on Chamberlain flats. The company is erecting a number of buildings for the housing of the men on the land. It is now expected that the work will be commenced about the middle of May.

L. Hochberg of Willimantic was a week end caller in town.

Samuel McDonald was in Willimantic, Friday.

Louis Alexander of Millington was a week end caller in town.

NOANK

Friends of Captain L. B. Stanton were pleased to see him in the village Friday. Captain Stanton, who was master of the Virginia Pendleton, while on a recent cruise to the Azores, suffered the loss of his right arm, but is now fast regaining his health.

Carolyn Andrews left Saturday for a short stay with friends in New York. The ship and engine Co's boat, Neptune II, has been hauled out on the marine railways at the local shipyard for the installation of a new propeller. The craft lost her wheel on a trip from New London to Groton and was towed around here to have a new wheel put on.

Friday evening the Baptist church served a supper to the officers and members of the church. The supper was in the Interchurch Movement. Following the supper, which was served by the Philathea class, final arrangements for the handling of the drive in Noank were made.

A New England supper is to be served for the benefit of the Noank band. A. V. Morgan has returned to his home after visiting in Willimantic.

Rev. Albany Smith has completed his campaign in Hartford and has returned to his home in the village where he will spend the next three weeks.

Lawrence Ellis has returned at Groton from work, and is employed on the ship yard at Three Rivers, Canada.

Fred Durfee has returned to his home in Boston, after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Durfee.

Hathaway Wolfe, who has been the guest of relatives in the village has returned to his business duties in Detroit, Mich.

Joseph N. Duchette has left on a business trip to Lowell, Mass.

Mrs. John Jensen and Miss Irene Lavers have returned from Sagamore, Mass.

Miss Emma Daholl is seriously ill at her home.

Leon Stetare, Thomas Magowan and several others are employed as night watchmen by the ship yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Park were business callers in Taftville, Friday.

Captain William L. Lewis has installed electric bells in his home.

Captain Stephen Bagnall, in the schooner Star, left Friday on a half-century cruise to the Cape Verde Islands.

Capt. James P. Brown has purchased the land owned by the heirs of the Potter estate, where the store run by R. H. Potter once stood. The store was burned down shortly after the death of Mr. Potter, now owned by the heirs.

Mr. Potter, now owned by the heirs, intended to move the building which he bought of Mrs. M. E. Latham a while ago on the land on Front street. It will be used by Captain Brown as a work shop and a place to store his fishing nets. For a good many years the building was used as a paint shop by William Chesbro, who, owing to advancing age, was compelled to give up the business.

U. S. GOVERNMENT BALBRIGGAN UNDERWEAR

Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers

69c a Garment

EACH GARMENT HAS PASSED A RIGID GOVERNMENT INSPECTION AND BEARS THE OFFICIAL STAMP WHICH MEANS SERVICE

The Shirts are pull-over style, with short sleeves, and are large and roomy. The Drawers are all ankle length, with double reinforcements at seat and crotch, and have taped seams, and ribbed ankle.

If bought through regular mercantile channels we would have to sell such Underwear for $1.25 a garment. It was made for hard service, and only the best materials were used, and the work was closely checked up—we cannot say too much in its favor.

We have a large quantity, but at this low price the demand will be lively, and we advise an early purchase.

WESTERLY

The act to prevent pollution of the waters of Rhode Island, passed in the senate, is now on the house calendar. The act creates a commission of three members, to be known as the board of purification of waters, and appropriates $10,000 for the purpose.

A final attempt was made in the senate to secure a bonus for yeoman with an appropriation of $20,000, but unanimous consent was denied. The resolution was referred to the finance committee and will probably not be reported back for action.

Resolution was passed in the senate in concurrence with the house, exempting from taxation the building and grounds of the General Nathaniel Greene Homestead association.

Under an act passed, the towns of Narragansett and South Kingstown are authorized to contribute to the cost of service of the Narragansett Pier railroad company, and authorizes the public utilities commission to permit the company to receive or discontinue service.

Another act passed permits the exemption from taxation property of Narragansett Pier railroad, by vote of the electors.

An act was adopted to increase the salary of clerks of superior courts in Washington, Kent and Newport counties $500 each.

A resolution was passed in concurrence allowing the use of the state army at Westerly by Westerly lodge, R. P. O. E.

The general assembly will reconvene Tuesday and it is expected that final adjournment will be reached Wednesday night.

Bills of importance have not been given final consideration. None of the Rhode Island company bills nor the new corporation law have been reported by committee. The daylight saving bill is still with the special legislative committee.

The senate judiciary committee has the Sunday movie bill, and the house judiciary committee has the milk and dairy act abolishing the jury commission.

The milk bill may be presented in amended form, but it is believed the jury commission matter will be buried by the committee.

The Westerly town council has granted the petition and issued license to the White Rock baseball club to play baseball Sundays in the village of White Rock beginning May 2 and continue through the season.

John J. Dunn argued in favor of granting the petition. There was opposition by Rev. Frederick A. MacDonald, representative of the Pawtucket Congregational church, and by Rev. Samuel M. Carter, a former pastor of the church, and Rev. Philip M. Saller of the Methodist church, representing the Westerly Ministerial association.

Mrs. Annie B. McConnell, in appreciation of the efforts of Westerly in saving her bungalow and valuable trees from destruction by fire, has sent a substantial check to Fire Chief George Egger for his services in saving the property.

The $50,000 suit of Owen Lee against Shetland E. Wilcox, Sheriff Greene, Everett Jones, charging false imprisonment and malicious prosecution, which has been on trial in the superior court for three days, will be resumed when court reconvenes in Westerly this (Monday) morning. It is expected the case will go to the jury in the early afternoon.

The laborers on the Post road state contract, who quit work Friday by reason of the strike of local laborers, have been put to work elsewhere by the contractor, but the mechanics and engineers are to remain on the job for the present. These out of town laborers desired to continue at work and knew they would be attacked when they were away from the job. There is a report that this particular strike will soon come to an end and that the strikers will return to work for 60 cents an hour. The demand is for 75 cents, and the strike is general in all sections of the town.

Local Laceries. Amos P. Broadmeadow has been transferred from the command of the coast guard station at Fisher's Island to the West Hill station.

Four dollars a bushel was the price for potatoes in Westerly Saturday. The price of native eggs was reduced to 55 cents a dozen.

C. C. Cottrell & Sons company plant is to be operated by electricity beginning today (Monday). The company has contracted for the power with the Westerly Light and Power company.

Eugene E. Knight, Sheffield Greene, William H. Opie, Rudolph H. Saunders and Charles A. Plum have been added to the force of police constables to serve without pay.

James L. Cline has sold to Mrs. Lena Pratt for John McJennett, executor under the will of his father, the late John McJennett, the property situated on the Canterbury road near Peck's corner. It consists of a house and about an acre of land.

DAVIS THEATRE

The show booked for the Davis the first half of this week is one that will stand the severest test of the critics. The five acts are all standard attractions and the headline attraction is a recognized vaudeville feature that has topped many a big-time bill. They are James and Sadie Leonard & Co. in When Caesar Sues Her, a comedy sketch that has all the ingredients that cause laughter. The next act is Rowland and Mehan, who present a unique offering entitled Neighbors. Besides the comedy that the two boys have nice voices and they put their songs over as only regulars can. The third act is Harry Puck, a clever, entertainer who sings, tells stories and plays the piano. The fourth act is Selbini and Grovini in their comedy offering, Follies of Vanderville; this is a comedy act that is entirely different from anything ever presented here. The fifth act is the Ester Trio, an act that is full of clean comedy and has a surprise finale that will send you away with a smile on your face. No expense has been spared to get the very best in the vaudeville market for this coming week. The feature picture is Alice Brady in Sinners, a six-part picture from the play by Owen Davis. This is Miss Brady's latest production and one of the cleverest comedy dramas ever screened. Paramount Screen Magazine completes the show.

Matinee daily at 2:15. Evening pictures from 7 to 8:15. Vaudeville 8:15 to 9:30, pictures 9:30 to 10:30, daylight saving time.

DAVIS THEATRE

In the larger cities such as New York, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Boston no theatrical season is complete without a revival of the classic comedy, Sinners, by Owen Davis. And a Westchester look from year to year for its presentation. William A. Brady has produced it 25 years ago, and it has been played every year since then to millions of delighted audiences. This comedy, if anything, the scene of perfection in theatrical endeavor and Comedian & Shannon, Inc. who are presenting the play, have spared no expense to make the company in its entirety the most formidable, both as to its artists, who comprise 25 in number, and the scenic and electrical effects.

Way Down East is playing a few of the smaller cities en route to the coast and this city is fortunate in securing a performance here. The play will be seen at the Davis theatre Wednesday evening.

BREED THEATRE

Justifying the claims made for her by the motion picture critics of the country, Alice Lake, Metro's newest star, made her appearance yesterday at the Breed theatre in the sensational drama of James A. Herne's immortal drama of New England, Shore Acres. Miss Lake made a tremendous appeal in the role of the daughter of the stern old farmer, who defied her father in eloping with her true love.

The haunting witchery of Miss Lake's face coupled with her superb capacity for portraying dramatic emotion made the picture a supreme delight to the patrons of the Breed. It was a deservedly new star in a rattling good picture, and the showing which attended the performance was a triumph like that.

Supporting Miss Lake are such capable players as Edward Connelly, Joseph Killgour, Frank Brownlee, Robert Walker, Margaret McWade and Richard Hendrick. The picture is capable, directed by Rex Ingram from a scenario by Arthur J. Zeller. Shore Acres will be the feature again today and Tuesday.

Other pictures of the bill include The Pale Grey and a roaring two-part comedy. Prices during this engagement are: Matinees 20 cents and evenings 25 cents. These prices include war tax.

STRAND

The Strand will have the best show ever seen at this popular playhouse on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The Girl in the Air is being featured. This is a rare novelty singing act with special lighting effects and special scenery. Lark Lanning, the world famous mimic, is also coming. Elsie Lang & Co. will be seen in a full stage comedy sketch "Will bring tears to your eyes and a path in your side from laughter."

For the special feature a First National attraction will be shown starring Vivian Martin in Bushiana and Wilver from the famous novel, Making Her His Wife, by Carlo Harris. Vivian Martin as the wife became wedded life by replying to her husband's statement—"The first thing every wife should learn is to obey her husband"—that "The first thing every husband should learn is to obey her."

The difference of opinion is caused by her having seen a northern society girl who marries a small town hardware merchant in the south; quite naturally their ideas of life differ greatly. The struggle to "win mastery over each other" gives Miss Martin a chance to show her talent. This demonstration her histrionic talent comes early and avoid the rush.

An un-to-date weekly will close this wonderful show. Be sure to come early.

NEWINGTON

The selectmen have received notice from the Hartford board of water commissioners that the petition for a supply of water for the town of Newington for domestic use has been granted and will be furnished at a rate of 10 cents in force between Hartford and Wethersfield.

GOODYEAR

Dr. Taylor of Hingham, with his wife and two young sons, arrived in town Tuesday. They will take up their residence shortly in a new house at the corner of Litchfield avenue and First street.

Mr. Murray spent several days the past week in New York city attending to business. Harry Douvan has returned from a brief vacation spent in Woonsocket, R. I.

Floyd Bailey was a business caller in Worcester, Monday.

Wilfred Douvan, who was married in Woonsocket, R. I., last Monday, has returned to Goodyear with his bride.
